LIMEN COLLECTION BY STUDIOUTTE

utte (hütte) /'hytə/ hut, hütte, small cabana, wooden cabin, shelter.

Established in 2020, studioutte is a Milan-based multidisciplinary practice for architecture, interiors, furniture and objects.

The vision of studioutte is distinctly Italian yet an integrated, harmonious reality. Its hybrid design is composed of vernacular architecture research and influences across various regional practices. Through a clear, expressive approach that eludes reiterated and extreme elements, the aim is purity, a concentration into a primitive essence. A warm assertiveness meets an animistic devotion to objects and interiors. Reaching beyond the formality of simplicity, ideas are distilled into essential poetic forms and spaces.

studioutte Architects

Milan-based architects and designers Guglielmo Giagnotti and Patrizio Gola established studioutte to manifest a shared vision of warm minimalism in a vernacular approach.

Giagnotti (Bari 07/12/1989), a former architect at Vincent Van Duysen, graduated from the Polytechnic of Bari in 2014. In Ghent, he partnered with Robbrecht en Daem and Dierendonckblancke studios and completed various public competitions. After a move to Antwerp in 2015, Giagnotti specialized in luxury interiors and small to medium-scale architecture projects across a long working relationship with Van Duysen.

Gola (Sondrio 17/02/1991) was trained in interior design at the Politecnico di Milano. At the DWA studio in Milan, he specialized in retail design, exhibitions and installations. In 2017, Gola joined Dimorestudio and collaborated on large-scale commissions ranging from hospitality to retail and residential projects.
